The Aspermont European Equity Rotator Basket

The Actively Managed Certificate (AMC) linked to the Aspermont European Equity Rotator Basket gives investors the opportunity to invest in a dynamic, broadly diversified European equity portfolio. Since investments are made exclusively in indices, stock-specific risks are eliminated. The strategy is designed to give the manager the opportunity to add direct sector exposure by under/overweighting specific segment comparing to index weight. Target weightings are determined by both fundamental and technical aspects and are continuously reviewed and adjusted as necessary. We place emphasis on the relative strength indicator (RSI), which is a technical momentum indicator that compares the magnitude of recent gains to recent losses of the asset to identify overbought and oversold conditions.

Manager's Comment

Contraction in April was only temporary, as European markets managed to offset losses. European Rotator basket finished month with +2.36% performance and 0% presence of cash, while the Eurostoxx 600 recorded slightly better result in month, +2.63%, however, we are still +1% better than benchmark observed on YTD basis.

In May, we mainly focused on quarterly rebalancing sectors towards updated benchmark weights, with minor adjustments done in expectation of positive market performance in month. Although EU stocks indeed recorded growth in May, distribution of sector results was a bit contrary to standard economic theory. Cyclical sectors, like Industrial goods (overweight +2.5%, cont. +0.61%) and Banks (overweight +0.5%, cont.+0.51%) performed better than a overall market, but not as good as Utilities (-1% underweight, +0.21%) which are considered as a defensive segment. Best performer in relative increase was Real Estate (neutral, +0.1% cont.) which benefited from stabilizing inflation. Our two most overweighted positions, France (+2.5%, flat cont.) and Personal & Household goods (+1.5%, -0.12% cont.) fell due to luxury stocks LVMH and Hermes replicated the negative move of Prada after publishing results, causing narrowing the performance gap vs benchmark. Another overweight position, Travel (+0.5%, -0.1% cont.) unexpectedly fall prior to summer season, while our other overweight positions (Technology +0.5%, Energy +0.5% and Media +0.5%) performed in line with the market.
